THE Hon. O. CHADWICE's deliverance on the question whether the combined system of drainage should be continued for this Colony or the separate system be adopted has been awaited with much interest. At length the hon, gentleman has expressed a very decided opinion. His report on the general drainage waters, arrived here on Saturday. has not yet appeared, but in a report on the recommendations of the Fever Commission he states his views as to the principle to be Singapore at 8 a.m. on Saturday and may be exfollowed. In launching the separate system of drainage we believe Mr. Price did one of the best of the many good things he did for the Colony during Financial Commissioner at Ninking, Hen Chen-i, his career here, and that when his views are carried into effect the health and comfort of the inhabitants will be greatly improved. Mr. Price was on the eve of leaving Hongkong when he submitted the scheme which the Turkish naval authorities which have not yet will and our acknowledgment of their exertions brought down upon him such a shower of abuse and opposition. Had he been content to leave matters as they were the Colony might perhaps have gone on with its combined system and its attendant evils for another twenty years and Mr. PRICE would have been spared the opprobrium that was The figures, taken in the act of throwing hurled after him when he left by those whose somersaults, appear with perfect distinctness. hostility had been aroused by his suggested the photographer's art. improvements. > I understand, writes the Yokohama corres pendent of the N. C. Daily News, that the last representatives of the old Pacific Mail Shang hai-Yokohama line, the steamships Nagoya Maru and Hiroshima Maru (formerly known as the Oregonian and Golden Age), are not likely to again figure as mail and passenger steamers. They were withdrawn from the Yokohama-Yokkaichi route in January (after being for several months under the command of two of the older Japanese captains), and are likely to be in the market very shortly. The first-named needs re-coppering, and it is this which is the proximate cause of her withdrawal. With new copper the old boats could serve a few years longer, with continued careful nursing of their old a plucky fight for it. The time, 4mins, 56secs., boilers. Despite their age, they actually did more continuous work until a short time since than the crack boats of the Company; both being centinually "turned about" within a few hours of arrival in port in order to fill the places of steamers temporarily withdrawn. Thanks mainly to the work of Chief Engineers MacCormick and Harlow, and their assistants, the familiar old side-wheelers responded to the close of a long race. All occasion for exceptional despatch is now a feature of the by-gone, at least on the Yokkaichi line; the passenger traffic by sea, which alone gave importance and value to the route, is nothing now compared with what it was prior to the opening of the Tokaido Railway. Then steamers came in with 200 and 250 passengers; now they arrive with less than a tenth of

The Chinese have known for many years that there was gold in the mountains of Taishan, in the province of Shantung. They realized the extent of it when some men who had worked in the mines and mills in California began prospecting and discovered a bonanza. They erected a rude mill and from the outset the production of gold was enormous. They claim that not a ton of ore taken out has yielded less than 3700, while much of it has run into the thousands. The matter was kept quiet and a big stock company formed that obtained control of about eighty miles of land in the vicinity, and the two Chinamon now here were sent to this country to make preliminary arrangements for the purchase of machinery, etc., and also to float a certain portion of the stock. DR. CANTLIE ON THE FEVER COM MISSION'S RECOMMEND STIONS.

The following minute by Dr. Cantlie on the recommendations of the Fever Commission was laid on the table at the last sitting of the Sanitary Board :-

I. The first recommendation is that subsoil drainage be proceeded with at once. Although there may not be much ground the neighbourhood of a marshy nature, still the Commissioners satisfied themselves that the ground water was at all points close to the surface, and that a few superficial scratches only were sufficient to show the level at which water stood. The rise and full of the ground water munity who sympathise with Mr. Fleming and has been, and is, considered by most investigators grespect him for his decision in this matter. Perof malarial poison in malarial districts. That this element was present in the district complained of in the latter end of 1887, more than it is to-day, is plain. Now, new roads, new putting aside his private feelings altogether, has levellings, new houses and sites for houses have been made, and the condition and configuration ! of the district has been completely changed That good has been done thereby there cannot be the possibility of doubt, and the only part complained of to-day, is a piece of unoccupied ground above Rose Villas which remains in the ands of Government I agree that lately fever has been at a minimum in the Western District and I ascribe to the freeing of the ground water by the numerous improvements, the beneficial results obtained.

II, The second Recommendation, that period of earth-outting be regulated, was intended to apply to the colony generally. The Commissioners reported very strongly upon this and took the stand-point that human lives were more precious than dollars, and that the land-owners themselves would be the first to adhere to the humane text. The only reason why the period cannot be regulated can only be from the standpoint of money, and, as yet, with even the Praya Reclamation scheme in view. I see no reason to budge from the belief that the enforcement of the recommendation would be a public benefit. As a corollary to the confuting this Recom mendation of the Commissioners, the Hon. th Surveyor-General suggests that a thorough investigation of malarial poison ought to be made. Linfer he means in Hongkong. Now, this germ must exist in all malarial districts on the face of the earth, and has been and is being searched for by many men "having the indispensable leisure and scientific attainments" demanded by the Hon, the Surveyor-General. That germ has not yet been pronounced upon, although all the Universities of Southern Europe have been closely engaged thereat, and in India the Go vernment for many years past bave dealt with the subject fully, scientifically, and experimentarchi I record this to deter, if possible, the Govern ment running into useless expense by establishing a bacteriological station in Hongkong for the investigation of the bacteriology of malaria, without duly considering that the ground has require while young to be kept free round their been gone over as thoroughly as human skill can, in Europe, India, and America. 1II.—Towards the end of his report, the Hon. Surveyor-General remarks that he has very little doubt that one of the chief causes of the unhealthiness of the detached houses on tainly should not be omitted considering the the upper levels in the western district may be staff the colony has under its pay -Yours &c., traced to the insanitary condition of the densely inhabited native quarters situated immediately below. In the unstable state of our sanitary knowledge, it is pardonable that conditions are viewed with different eyes, according as they are regarded from the point of an interested holder of land, or from that of a pure sanitarian. One feature the landlords in the western district do pride themselves on is that such a narrow strip of dwellings exists between them and the sea. and in their belief the health of the district cannot be affected thereby. Moveover, the inflame the public mind and lead to further native quarters exist to-day as they did in 1887 disturbances. and yet the fever has practically disappeared. would venture therefore to state, that, the Commissioners were right, when after deliberation, they neglected to mention this element as being a source of infection. In conclusion, I would briefly state my be lieve to be that the improvement in the health of the Western District is ascribable to the changed conditions that now exist there, and most of all that the ground water has been al lowed exit by the many cuttings, road making, levellings, and drainage, consequent on the erection of new buildings.

Finally, I would suggest that the principle be followed and acted upon, and wherever possible, that sub-soil drainage be made with all set. easonable despatch.

THE ACTING GOVERNOR AND THE MASONIC FRATERNITY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS." ... DEAR SIR, -A propos of the miniature storm raised by the decision of the Acting Governor not to allow the laying of the foundation-stone of the Prava Reclamation to take place with Masonic ceremonies, I think it is only fair to remark that there is a large section of the comsonally I am neither a Roman Catholic nor a Freemsson, and would be indifferent as to whether the event took place with Masonic coremonies or not, but I maintain that Mr. Floming. acted justly and considerately in omitting part of a programme which would give offence to the Roman Catholic portion of the community, who have as much a claim to be considered as the Masonic element. The latter, after all, are merely a section of the community, and to them the omission of the ceremony can be nothing more than a disappointment, whereas to a large number of residents in the Colony the performance of it would amount to an actual It is impossible to please everybody, and Mr Fleming, in my humble opinion, has taken the right course under the circumstances, though it is only natural perhaps that the more rabid of the supporters of the Masonic ceremony should give vent to their spleen in face of the disappointment.-I am, Dear Sir, yours truly.

TREE PLANTING. TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS." Sir,—At the meeting of the Sanitary Board some discussion took place respecting coolie quarters. Householders will find it very much to their advantage to allow their chair coolies to reside off the premises and treat them like day labourers in England; besides, the coolies much prefer this arrangement. The Fever Commission was also discussed. The subject of surface drainage was touched upon, but no mention was made of tree planting. To my mind this is of great importance, and since sum of $23,030 is down in the Estimates for the year 1890 for the expense for the Botanical Gardensand Government Plantations, and we have a Superintendent and an Assistant Superintendent besides a considerable staff. I think with advantage to the residents of Victoria more trees might be planted in the immediate neighbourhood of the dwelling houses. A considerable amount of drainage may thus be effected and the air purified by the foliage, to say nothing of the appearance of well kept trees. The trees when planted roots from weeds and an occasional top dressing given. Most of the trees planted in this colony are left to take their chance when once they leave the nursery. The work or expense entailed by such attention amounts to nothing and cer-

THE GERMAN ELECTIONS Berlin, 21st February. Returns from the elections thus far show the election of five Conservatives, two Imperialists. eighteen Centrists, two Liberals, fourteen Socialists, one National Liberal, two Poles and two Aleatians. In seventy-six other districts a second ballot will be necessary. Compared with the preceding election, the Socialist vote in Berlin shows an increase of 33,000, the Liberal vote an increase of 8,000, and the Conservative vote a decrease of 25,000. Two Socialists were elected in this city. In three districts a second ballot will be necessary. The Socialists carried Magdeburg, Alloma, Hamburg and the Dresden district, the Leipsig district, Chemig, Selican, Nuremburg, Mitteweit, Schneederg and Elberfeld. No combination of their opponents seems likely to head them off on second ballots, and there are prospects of seeing from thirty-five to forty Socialists scated in the next Roichstag, as egainst eleven in the last Reichsteg. Another result suggestive of the growth of this popular movement is the reappearance of the Volks party, or Democrats, so-called. In the Reichstag of 1884 this party held eleven seats

This is a very heterogenous opposition, held together by no devotion to a common purpose, but only by the negative tie of objection, yet it is bound to give the Government some lively fights.

While there is no doubt that the elections of Saturday were a sweeping Liberal victory, completely smashing the cartel parties, by which Bismarck governs, even the most sangine Liberals do not expect that the Chancellor will dissolve Parliament and call for new elections. He knows too well that a now ballot in the present state of public opinion would bring an even more crushing defeat.

BERLIN, 26th February. The result of the election is made more astonishing than ever by the fact that every effort was made to prevent the Socialists from using chief if Parliament approves of the report of any ordinary methods for making a canvass prior to the election. The police would not allow their pamphlets to be distributed or any meetings to be held. The candidates were therefore obliged to resort to such odd means of convassing as writing their names in chalk on the walls of houses and on the sidewalks or dis cases through their school children.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN THE BRITISH ARMY.

LONDON, 24th February. The report of the royal commission on the therefore, declines to allow the morganatic son army and navy must surely see the light before long, for little by little its substance is becoming known to the public. We believe it will be found that it proposes to do away with the office of commander-in-chief of the army whenever a vacancy arises. This seems to set at rest all speculations as to the Duke of Connaught succeeding the Duke of Cambridge. The change will occasion some dissatisfaction in certain quarters. and possibly much bitter feeling, and it is not at all certain that it will be popular in the army.

Civilian control of the army will be continued by the retention of the Secretary of State for staff, but there will be no more commanders inthe commission. MINISTER, HY MEANS OF A PHONOGRAPH. PREACHES HIS OWN FUNERAL SERMON.
